Index Volumes 26 and 27 (1982 & 1983)

Subjects

Addiction in Africa, 27, 235-42

Adolescents
Acting-out —, 26, 195-206; fostering disturbed and delinquent — in England, 26, 62-71.

Adolescent sexual offenders, sexual learning and experience among —, 26, 235-41.

Adult ex-offenders, community treatment of, 26, 152-56.

Africa, prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of drug addicts in, 27, 235-42.

Aggressive children, 27, 11-13 and 66-70.

Alcoholics
helping —, 26, 275-80; treatment of, 27, 99-109 & 195-205.

Alcoholism
and the Church, 26, 166-72 & 275-80; treatment of, 27, 99-109 & 195-205.

American gangs and British subcultures, 26, 76-92.

August Aichorn and narcissism, 27, 226-34.

Behavioral modification and psychodrama, 27, 243-54.

Behavioral therapy in a Scottish penal institution, 27, 205-10.

Bereavement and crime, 27, 116-18.

British subcultures and American gangs, 26, 76-92.

Bureaucracy and community correction programs, 27, 138-40.

Canada, fitness to stand trial, 26, 43-48.

Carkhuff's systematic human relation training model, 26, 152-65.

Child abuse control, prevention and treatment, 27, 61-5; etiological factors and long term consequences of, 27, 21-54; historical background in, 27, 55-60.

Child molesters juvenile sexual offenses in the histories of, 27, 150-55.

Children
aggressive —, 27, 11-13 & 66-70; coping strategies of street —, 27, 5-20; delinquency and neurosis in, 27, 110-15; depression and suicide in, 26, 13-14; — development and healthy families, 27, 71-78; and family violence, 27, 27-33; — Hearings (Scotland), 26, 32-35; ill-treatment of — and long term consequences, 27, 61-65; learning disorders in, 26, 145-51; sexual abuse of, 27, 44-47; and suicide, 26, 10-17 & 27, 211-17; violent behavior of — (variables correlated to), 27, 66-70.

Community treatment of adult ex-offenders, 26, 152-56.

Correction
Comparative paradigm for analyzing international community —, 27, 125-42; privatization of, 26, 177-87.

Correctional institutions, research in stress factors in, 26, 250-54.

Correctional officers, training of — in writing psychological reports, 26, 126-32.

Crime and unemployment, 26, 207-14; and unresolved grief, 27, 116-18.

Criminal behaviour psychoanalytical contribution to the understanding and treatment of, 26, 281-87; and bereavement, 27, 116-18.

Delinquency and hyperactivity, 26, 147.

Delinquent females, in-depth therapy with, 26, 215-22.

Dependence, 26, 138-44.
Depression and suicide in children, 26, 10-17 & 27, 211-17.
Down and about, caring for, 26, 166-72.
Drug addiction, prevention, treatment and rehabilitation in Africa, 27, 235-42.

Economic cost of correction, 26, 177-87.
Emotionally disturbed individuals, treatment of, 26, 72-5.
England
conceptual images of social work and probation practice in, 27, 255-64; family placement of disturbed and delinquent adolescents, 26, 62-71; juvenile justice in — and Scotland, 26, 32-35; probation in prison, 26, 18-31; subcultures in — and American gangs, 26, 78-92.
Environmental factors and children suicide, 26, 12-13 & 27, 211-17.
Exhibitionism, 26, 173-76.

Family
Healthy — and children development, 27, 71-78; — placement of disturbed and delinquent adolescents, 26, 62-70; — violence, 27, 79-83; violent — and child abuse, 27, 21-65.
Family law in transition (USA), 26, 46-52.
Family of prisoners, service for, 27, 156-62.
Female, in-depth therapy with delinquent —, 26, 215-22.
Fitness to stand trial, 26, 43-48.

Gangs,
American — and British subcultures, 26, 79-92; — ideologies, 26, 85-87.
Grief, unresolved — and crime, 27, 116-18.

Hostageology, 27, 94-96.
Hostels, dealing with violence in, 26, 255-62.
Hypnosis in forensic psychiatry, opposition to, 26, 133-37.

Incarceration, effect of, 26, 112-13.
Insanity, observed and self-reported psychopathology of acquittees for reason of, 27, 143-49.

Juvenile sexual offenses of adult rapists and child molesters, 27, 150-55.

Killers and their victims, 26, 36-42.

Law and phychiatry, 26, 157-65.
Learning disorders in offenders, 26, 145-51.

Massachusetts, criminal justice in, 26, 36-42; family law in, 26, 49-52.
Mentally disordered offenders and fitness to stand trial, 26, 43-48.
Mentally ill offenders, treatment program for, 26, 53-61.
Money payment supervision orders (England), 27, 163-72.
Murder in Boston, 26, 36-42.

Narcissism
and August Aichorn, 27, 226-34; and Ben Burstein, 27, 231-32; contemporary psychoanalytical theory of, 27, 228-29; transference and —, 27, 229-31.
Neurosis and delinquency in children, 27, 110-15.

Object-relation therapy in the treatment of alcoholics, 27, 99-109.
Offenders, learning disabilities in, 26, 145-51.
Offender therapy, paradoxes of happiness in, 27, 119-24.

Paradoxes of happiness in offender therapy, 27, 119-24.
Parental deprivation and psychopathy, 26, 195-206.
Parole supervision of "at risk" parolees in Australia, 26, 121-25.
Poland, prison staff in —: regulations and actual practice, 27, 184-92.

Police program for employment of youth gang members, 26, 207-14.
Post-Vietnam traumatic stress disorder, 27, 218-25.
Prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of drug addicts in Africa, 27, 235-42.
Prisoners, reintegration of ex- —, 26, 109-20.
Prison
behavioral treatment in (Scotland), 27, 205-10; goals in, 27, 206-7; probation in (England), 26, 18-31; psychodrama in, 27, 143-54; — staff in Poland, 27, 184-92.
Prisoners' family, service for, 27, 156-62.
Privatization of corrections, 26, 177-87.
Probation
in prison (England), 26, 18-31; and social work (Southampton Day Centre, England), 27, 255-64; — supervision and rehabilitation, 26, 113-14.
Probation officers and the court (England), 26, 27-31; training — to conduct psychological evaluation (USA), 27, 265-69.
Psychiatry and the law, 26, 157-65.
Psychoanalytic contribution to the understanding and treatment of criminal behavior, 26, 281-87.
Psychodrama, impact of — in behavior modifications, 27, 234-54.
Psychological evaluation, 26, 126-32.
Psychological report writing, training of correction personnel to, 27, 265-69.
Psychopathy and parental deprivation, 26, 195-206.
Psychopathology, observed and self-reported — of acquittees not guilty for reason of insanity, 27, 143-49.

Rape and wife beating, 27, 173-83.
Rapists, juvenile sexual offences in the histories of, 27, 150-55.
Rehabilitation, what help —?, 26, 109-20.
Report writing (psychological), training of correctional personnel, 26, 126-32.

School violence, 27, 6-9.
Scotland, children's hearings in, 26, 32-35.
Sexual abuse of children, 27, 44-47.
Sexual deviance, perception of, 26, 242-49.
Sexual learning and experience among adolescent sexual offenders, 26, 235-41.
Sexual offences (juvenile) in the histories of adult rapists and child molesters, 27, 150-55.
Sexual offenders,
residential treatment program for male —, 26, 223-34.
Social work and probation, criticism of, 27, 255-64.
Society's outcasts, caring for, 26, 166-72.
Street children, helping, 27, 13-16.
Stress disorders in Vietnam veterans, 27, 218-25.
Stress factors in correctional institutions, 26, 250-54.
Suicide, children —, problem of, 26, 10-17 & 27, 211-17.

Therapy with delinquent females, 26, 215-22.
Training probation personnel to conduct psychological evaluation, 27, 265-69.
Transference and narcissism, 27, 232.
Treatment
of acting-out adolescents, 26, 197-204; of alcoholic patients, 27, 99-109 & 195-205; of compulsory detained patients, 26, 72-75; of drug addicts in Africa, 27, 235-

42; of female offenders, 26, 215-22; of male sex offenders, 26, 223-34; — project for young people, 27, 84-93.
Trial, fitness to stand, 26, 43-48.

Unemployment and crime, 26, 207-14.

Victims and killers, 26, 36-42.
Vietnam veterans, traumatic stress disorders in, 27, 218-25
Violence
dealing with — in Hostels, 26, 255-62; effect of — on the family and children, 27, 21-54; against women, 27, 79-83 & 173-83.
Vocational training and reintegration of ex-prisoners, 26, 114-15.

Women, social causes and functions of violence against, 27, 173-83.
Work release and reintegration, 26, 115-16.

Yniscedwyn intermediate treatment project, 27, 84-93.

Authors and Titles

Adler, G.: Recent Psychoanalytic Contribution to the Understanding and Treatment of Criminal Behaviour, 26, 281-87.

Annis, L. V.: A Residential Treatment Program for Male Sex Offenders, 26, 223-34.

Arboleda-Florez, J.: Fitness to Stand Trial—Is it Necessary?, 26, 43-48.

—— See Dalby, J. T. et al, 26, 145-51.

Archer, C. P.: Probation in Prison, 26, 18-26.

Astone, N. A.: What Helps Rehabilitation? A Survey of Research Findings, 26, 109-20.

Baurmeister, M.: Dependence, 26, 138-44.

Blackstock, K.—See Razvi, W. S. et al, 27, 205-10.

Brownlie, K.; Jarman, M. and Miles, L.: The Yniscedwyn Intermediate Treatment Project, 27, 84-93.

Burt, M. J. G.: The "At Risk" Parolee: Victoria's Special Supervision Unit, 26, 121-25.

Calhoun, J. F.—See William, S., et al, 26, 126-32.

—— See Goodman, A. N. and Calhoun, J. F., 27, 265-69.

Campbell, A.; Munce, S. and Galea, J.: American Gangs and British Subcultures: A Comparison, 26, 76-89.

Caruso, J. M.: A Comparative Paradigm for Analyzing International Community Corrections Programs, 27, 125-42.

Coker, J. B.: "Sentenced to Social Work?"—An Experiment in Probation Practice in Hampshire (England), 26, 27-31.

Cooke, M. K. and Cooke, G.: An Integrated Treatment Program for Mentally Ill Offenders: Description and Evaluation, 26, 53-61.

Cooke, G.—See Cooke, M. K. and Cooke, G., 26, 53-61.

Cooper, H. H. A.: Hostageology, 27, 94-96.

Dalby, J. T.; Schneider, R. D. and Arboleda-Florez, J.: Learning Disorders in Offenders, 26, 145-51.

Dattilio, F. M.: Community Treatment of Adult Ex-Offenders with the Use of Carkhuff's Systematic Human Relations Training Model, 26, 152-56.

Dixen, J.—See William, S. et al, 26, 126-32.

Drummond, T.: Caring for Society's Outcasts: A Christian View, 26, 166-72.

—— The Alcoholic and the Church: A Pastoral Response, 26, 275-80.

Fersch, E. A.: Law and Psychiatry: A Case in the District Court and at the Community Mental Health Center, 26, 157-65.

Foley, M.: Coping Strategies of Street Children, 27, 5-20.

French, L. A. and Wailes, S. N.: Perceptions of Sexual Deviance: A Bi-racial Analysis, 26, 242-49.

—— —— The Post-Vietnam Traumatic Stress Disorder: A Clinical Dilemma, 27, 218-25.

Galea, A.—See Campbell, A. et al, 26, 76-89.

Goodman, A. N. and Calhoun, J. F.: A Program for Training Probation Personnel to Conduct Psychological Evaluation, 27, 265-69.

Groth, A. N.—See Longo, R. E. and Groth, A. A., 27, 150-55.

Harris, M.—See Rogers, R. et al, 27, 143-49.

Hazel, K. N.: New Hope for Teenage Outcast: The Family Placement of Disturbed and Delinquent Adolescents, 26, 62-71.
Hil, R.: Conceptual Images of Social Work and Probation Practice: A Case Study, 27, 255-64.
Harvey, D. R.—See Schramski, T. G. and Harvey, D. R., 27, 243-54.
Hyland, E.—See Razvi, W. S. et al, 27, 235-42.

Inwald, R. E.: Research Problems in Assessing Stress Factors in Correctional Institutions, 26, 250-54.

Jarman, M.—See Brownlie, K. et al, 27, 84-93.
Jayewardene, C. H. S. and Talbot, C. K.: Entrusting Corrections to the Private Sector, 26, 177-87.

Kenny, M.: Money Payment Supervision Orders and their Place in the Enforcement Procedure, 27, 163-72.

Latham, S.—See Nielson, G. et al, 26, 195-206.
Lenoir-Degoumois, J.: The Manifestation of Ill-Treatment of Children: Historical Background, 27, 55-60.
Longo, R. E.: Sexual Learning and Experience among Adolescent Sexual Offenders, 26, 235-41.
Longo, R. E. and Groth, A. N.: Juvenile Sexual Offenses in the Histories of Adult Rapists and Child Molesters, 27, 150-55.

Marsh, R. L.: Services for Families: A Model Project to Provide Services for Families of Prisoners, 27, 156-62.
Miles, L.—See Brownlie, K. et al, 27, 84-93.
Moss, R. A.—See Williams, S. et al, 26, 126-32.
Munce, S.—See Campbell, A. et al, 26, 76-89.

McGuire, D.: The Problem of Children's Suicide—Ages 5-14, 26, 10-17.
—— Teenage Suicide: A Search for Sense, 27, 211-17.

Nielson, G.; Young, D. and Latham, S.: Multiply Acting-Out Adolescent: Developmental Correlates and Response to Secure Treatment, 26, 195-206.

Plutchick, R.: Variables Correlated with Violent Behaviour in Young Children, 27, 66-70.
—— Neurosis and Delinquency in Children, 27, 110-15.
Pogrebin, M.: Scarse Resources and Jail Management, 26, 263-74.

Razvi, W. S.; Hyland, E. and Blackstock, K.: Some Considerations for Behavioural Therapy in Scottish Penal Institutions, 27, 205-10.
Rizzo, N. D.: Murder in Boston: Killers and their Victims, 26, 36-42.
Rogers, R.; Harris, M. and Wasyliw, O. E.: Observed and Self-Reported Psychopathology in NGRI Acquittees in Court-Mandated Outpatient Treatment, 27, 143-49.
Rotenberg, E.: Family Law in Transition, 26, 49-52.
Rule, W. R.: Exploring Paradoxes of Happiness in Offender Therapy, 27, 119-24.
Rzeplinski, A.: Prison Staff in Poland in the Light of Legal Regulations and Actual Practice, 27, 184-92.

Schmideberg, M. and Tahourdin, B.: Treating the Troublesome, 26, 72-75.
Schneider, R. D.: Exhibitionism: An Exclusively Male Deviation?, 26, 173-76.
—— See Dalby, J. T. et al, 26, 145-51

Schramski, T. G. and Harvey, D. R.: The Impact of Psychodrama and Role Playing in the Correctional Environment, 27, 243-54.
Scott, E. M.: Delinquent Female: In-Depth Therapy and some Theoretical Opinions, 26, 215-22.
—— Object-Relations Theory: Expanded and Applied to the Treatment of certain Alcoholics, 27, 99-109.
—— Proposition for Professional Understanding and Treatment of the Alcoholic Patient, 27, 195-204.
—— See Turco, R. N. and Scott, E. M., 26, 133-37.
Scott, E. M. and Scott, K. L.: Healthy Families, 27, 71-78.
Scott, K. L.—See Scott, E. M. and Scott, K. L., 27, 71-78.
Snortum, J. R.—See Willman, M. T. and Snortum, J. R., 26, 207-14.

Tahourdin, B.: Juvenile Justice in England and Scotland, 26, 32-35.
—— Child Abuse: Control, Prevention and Treatment, 27, 61-65.
—— Family Violence, 27, 79-83.
—— See Schmideberg, M. and Tahourdin, B., 26, 72-75.
Talbot, C. K.—See Jayewardene, C. H. S. and Talbot, C. K., 26, 177-87.
Turco, R. N.: Unresolved Grief and the Commission of a Crime, 27, 116-18.
Turco, R. N. and Scott, E. M.: Hypnosis: Complications — An Illustrative Clinical Example, 26, 133-37.

Vesterdal, J.: Etiological Factors and Long Term Consequences of Child Abuse, 27, 21-54.

Wailes, S. N.—See French L. A. and Wailes, S. N., 26, 242-49 & 27, 218-25.
Wasyliw, O. E.—See Rogers, R. et al, 27, 143-49.
Whitfield, R. G. (Dick) American Gangs and British Subcultures: A Commentary, 26, 90-92.
—— Dealing with Violence: A Hostel Perspective, 26, 255-62.
Willman, M. T. and Snortun, J. R.: A Police Program for Employment of Youth Gang Members, 26, 207-14.
William, S.; Dixen, J.; Calhoun, J. F. and Moss, R. A.: Psychological Report Writing: Assessment and Training of Correctional Personnel, 26, 126-32.
Wulach, J. S.: August Aichorn's Legacy: The Treatment of Narcissism in Criminals, 27, 226-34.

Young, D.—See Nielson, G. et al, 26, 195-206.

Zoomer, O. J.: On the Social Causes and Function of Violence against Women, 27, 173-83.

A memorial monograph containing some of the papers written by Melitta Schmideberg will be despatched shortly.